Management Report (by Nathan Kalasho)

1. Business Update –
 - a. State Aid Note: Finalizing the SAN with counsel and bank. We will be receiving $600,000 at a 4.99% interest rate from Eastern Michigan Bank. Workbooks and documents presented.
2. Budget Update –
 - a. State School Aid: Bill was passed and signed into law with a $450 increase in per-pupil aid. Other big highlights: 31a increase, 41 increase and Special Education increase.
 - b. Section 41B: this line item specifically for our families remained in the bill. I have already discussed preliminary plans with the state consultant, and we have agreed to remain in touch regularly for this program. This is historic, and we should be proud. In partnership with Kalasho Education, we will be able to provide the types of support that our families need. Initial agreement presented.

- c. Financials- presented and discussed.
 - d. ESSER III- finalizing remaining budget items to be submitted first week of August. These items are based on another meaningful consultation effort with stakeholders. Parents remain focused on additional support in the form of personnel and tutoring. Teachers are in support of maintaining the paraprofessional and language support.
3. Personnel Report
- a. Presented the board with the personnel report

Information Items

1. Professional Learning Schedule- presented and discussed.
2. Summer School Update- great turnout. A blended program with reading/math focus but also plenty of fun activities to mix in. The students have really enjoyed it. K-4 ends tomorrow. 5th-8th begins in August 2nd.
3. First Week Plans- presented and discussed.

Comments from the Board

Dr. Alosachie- That additional funding is very exciting. I remember first hearing about it, and I am proud of the work taken to get this done

Mr. Bajoka- Agree with Dr. Alosachie. Rest of the budget looks great. First week plans seem to be well thought out.

Ms. Sesi- So happy to see the pictures of all the students in Summer school. Excited for the year!

Ms. Hazimi- Agree with everyone. Also great that we are providing additional help for our teachers. Goodnight!

Future Meetings and Adjournment
